

CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

Established in 1926 as the Guild of Prescription Opticians, the Opticians Association of America (OAA) is the only national organization representing opticianry's business, professional, educational, legislative and regulatory interests.

As a member of the association, OAA represents you. OAA is the voice of the opticianry industry and works as a promoter and communicator within and outside the industry while also protecting the reputation and perception of the industry in a local and global market.

Eligibility: Any company who is in sympathy with the purposes and objectives of the Association shall be eligible for Corporate Membership provided such person is not a proprietor, partner or officer of an optical dispensing firm or practice. Proprietors, partners and officers of Firm Members shall be eligible for Firm or Guild Membership(s).

Benefits of Membership: OAA provides our membership several avenues of assistance: promoting the industry as a whole; creating opportunities to assist you in making new industry contacts; strengthening your existing business relationships and keeping you abreast of current conditions and advances within the industry.

Networking & Marketing

- American Optician – a premier industry publication that is distributed twice annually to OAA members, industry leaders, and media professionals throughout North America. Through its relevant and insightful content, the American Optician keeps readers on the inside track about issues and events facing the opticianry industry.
- OAA's Annual National Opticians Convention – truly a unique gathering of the opticianry community, the annual convention provides attendees time for direct, personal contact with industry leaders and exhibitors. Educational seminars, keynote speakers and peer networking opportunities are all part of the annual convention.
- OAA's Annual State Leadership Conference - Leaders from a majority of the States and Canada attend educational seminars and topic specific breakout sessions that address subjects from growing membership numbers and legislative affairs to hosting meetings and communication synergy. The attendees immerse themselves in networking events that help build better synergy throughout North America.

- eBlasts – Throughout the year, OAA will send important updates to you via email to ensure that you are informed of industry related issues from legislation to the latest technology available to the industry.
- The Opticians Association of America represents you in many areas that you may be unaware. OAA has representatives on the ANSI Standards Board, American Board of Opticianry (ABO); Commission on Opticianry Accreditation (COA), Foundation for Eye Health Awareness, National Contact Lens Examiners (NCLE); National Federation of Opticianry Schools (NFOS), the Opticianry Summit Foundation, the Sun Initiative Planning Team and The Vision Council.

Education:

OAA offers the training and resources you need, regardless of the level of your career or the size of your company.
